What is the Moose Jaw Festival of Dance?

It is a dance competition incorporating many forms of dance for all levels of dancing from beginners to advance.

We have categories in Ballet, Broadway, Hip Hop, Jazz, Tap, Lyrical, Productions and Variety...something for everyone.

Dancers may enter as a solo, duo or trio competitor as well as in small or large group.

Who are our adjudicators?

Are adjudicators are highly qualified professionals in the dance industry, who are brought in from all over Canada and the United States. Adjudicators from the past years include Anthony Lacasio, Stephen Reed, Lois Smith and Frank Augustyn. The adjudicators are always impressed with the quality of the dancers, the high standards and discipline of their dance training.

What do we have to offer?

Besides friendly competition (which can raise the standard of performance), the festival gives your dancers the opportunity to project what they have learned and worked hard for.

The festival is proud to offer an excess of 220 awards including trophies & scholarships, which are all donated to those who excel or show promise in each category. Approximately $15,000 in cash & scholarships are awarded annually!

Dancers are given the opportunity to demonstrate their talent to the adjudicators who may "open doors" for many young dancers. Check out our testimonials on our website at

Your students have the opportunity to work with the adjudicators in small groups through workshops that are offered for a minimal fee. Workshops are taught by the adjudicators at the conclusion of the competition, before the Pure Gold Dance Off.

What about you and your students?

Moose Jaw Festival of Dance invites you to be part of this festival. Our 50th annual festival will be held April 30 - May 6, 2009.

Our entry forms and syllabus are posted on our website www.mjdancefestival.ca

What about us?

The general purpose of the Moose Jaw Festival of Dance is "to advance, promote and to encourage generally the study and practices of the art of Dance, either alone or in conjunction with the related arts". The Festival spirit may be defined as the joy of participating with others in seeking the highest levels in the art of dance. The Moose Jaw Festival of Dance is a non-profit organization. Our committee members are all dedicated volunteers.
